

6516209403.txt

Why when we finally have something which is worthwhile will you people come along and try to take it off the air. Just because the big broadcasters have a lot of money behind them would or should you give preferential treatment to them over the small business people. That would be totally wrong. Please allow XM Radio continue with the best programming and diverse channels I have ever heard.